

I strongly oppose any nudity or foul language on TV. There is absolutely no reason for foul language and if someone wants to watch nudity let them go to a movie theater where they will know what to expect and children will not be exposed.