

I strongly oppose the relaxing of viewing standards on TV as it will have a huge effect on our society, especially on children. Our television needs to show a higher level of decency if that's what we want our behavior and the behavior of our children to be.