

Our family does not agree with this change to your standards. Children should not be subjected to foul language and nudity. It is your job to enforce the policies regarding language and nudity especially during times that children would be watching TV.

thank you