

I oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards that would allow television and radio stations to broadcast expletives and nudity on the public airwaves, even if brief or "fleeting."

>

> REALLY! For the sake of children everywhere and their future. Do keep the ban on these offensive words. We often are overwhelmed hearing these words and we have no control. Leave one bastion of sanity. There are enough avenues to express these vile words. Leave TV & radio under our control without fear of hearing words we deem offensive.

The Supreme Court has confirmed the FCC's authority to enforce policies regarding expletives and nudity, especially during times when children are likely to be watching or listening.

> Relaxing the current policy would not serve the public interest and I urge the FCC to reject all proposals that would allow for the broadcast of expletives and nudity on FCC-licensed stations.
