

I opposed the suspension of current FCC regulations prohibiting profanity and frontal nudity, even briefly. Let's keep some semblance of decency on public and easily/readily accessible television during times when children and youth may be viewing. Decency can be extended 24/7 and viewers may still be entertained decently.

Thank you. Warren J Hopson, Sr