

I don't want you to relax the standards set regarding language and nudity in programming. I want to keep the current standards in place. I find my family and friends are watching less and less TV because programs are getting worse.

Thank you