

I am strongly against any changes to the FCC indecency standards, particularly for any content from 6AM-11PM. I believe the FCC must continue to strongly oppose all indecent content, even if it is "brief" or "only from the back" type of content.

The Supreme Court agrees that the FCC's authority to enforce policies prohibiting indecent broadcast during hours when children are likely to be in the viewing or listening audience. If it were up to me I'd prohibit it at all times, but I know in our free society we must give some unfortunate leeway to perverse judgement.

I feel relaxing the current policy would not, in the long term, serve the public interest at large and I urge the FCC to reject network broadcast-sponsored proposals that would allow for the airing of expletives and nudity (sexual or not) on FCC-licensed stations
