

I am a parent and children copy and mimic what they see and hear. Therefore I still see a need for nudity and swearing to be kept from them as much as possible. I feel that children are being exposed to too much too soon and this is harmful to them.