

To my understanding, the FCC is supposed to enforce and maintain certain guidelines- The morality of our children should not be infringed upon by the indecency of Hollywood, the never-ending violence and sexually explicit shows that invade our homes - Please do your job and help protect our children from the garbage that is so often thrown at us- Thank you