

I oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards that would allow television and radio stations to broadcast expletives and nudity on the public airwaves, even if brief or "fleeting."

The Supreme Court has confirmed the FCC's authority to enforce policies regarding expletives and nudity, especially during times when children are likely to be watching or listening.

Relaxing the current policy would not serve the public interest and I urge the FCC to reject all proposals that would allow for the broadcast of expletives and nudity on FCC-licensed stations.

We are bombarded with so many negative images in movies, advertising, online, etc - that we need the FCC to maintain at least one place where we can trust what we see will have some decency standards. Those who want to see and hear the other stuff can certainly find it elsewhere. Those who do not, need a safe place to view entertainment. Please help protect our children and those of us who do not wish to be exposed to such content.

Thank you very much.
