

This is an outrage. There is too much crap on TV already. If they allow this, we WIIL drop our cable. Believe it or not, it is 2013 & the Internet allows us many other options. If the television industry does not want to go belly up, they better start pleasing the people & not "Hollywood".