

Profanity and nudity have no place in standard television and radio. I was already appalled when the word bitch was allowed! My children do not need to hear or see any of that. Satellite radio and cable television exist for those who want that content in their day to day lives.