

How can we teach our children respect and decency with curse words and nudity on television and movies? It is offensive to many citizens! Why would Americans even think of such trash in their homes?