

I oppose any changes to the current FCC decency standards that would allow t.v. and radio stations to broadcast expletives and nudity on public airwaves.