

I am writing in request to not lift this ban on such swear words and nudity. This should not be something that can be seen or heard on the television in general and especially not when anyone can access it including my children. I deep ask you to reconsider this stance.