

Foul language is very offensive and disrespectful. It is not necessary language for any human being to use such language and it teaches our children and grandchildren that we do not respect people so why should they. It is such a bad example. We don't want sex crimes to happen so why is nudity ok on TV. It shows little respect for men and women alike and is not good entertainment for our families.