

Please do not relax the decency standards. There are enough sexual/profane/explicit influences in our children's lives without putting it on network television and radio as well. There are enough outlets to allow for creative uses of profanity and nudity already which we can choose to view or avoid. Don't take this last censored medium away.