

Please keep in force and actively monitor the Decency Law. The public airwaves need, for the good of the public, to be free of blatantly indecent language, or cinematography that is immoral by most standards. Thank you for your time.