

Do not agree with allowing unconstrained use of profanity in public airings or activities on the radio, TV, or cable channels. Should the rules and acceptable word constraints be modified, require the materials to be aired only with specific consent removal/allowance equipment on the receivers being used similar to parental controls on computers and Internet sites.