

I do not agree with your motion to change the current regulations regarding television/radio. What is shown on public television cannot be controlled by parents who want to raise their children with different standards than other parents. Please respect the wishes of many American citizens and keep your regulations the same.