

I am very much against the FCC relaxing their attitude toward vulgarity, nudity and four letter words on T. V. and radio. Our nation must protect our children from these things as much as possible. It is bad enough already without giving authority to stations to allow whatever they desire. Please resist this move. I am a pastor of a Baptist church and have children under my spiritual guidance. They face enough problems without adding this to their lives.