

Lessening the indecency standards on TV would be a huge mistake. It is already difficult to find appropriate material for children and families to watch. If these standards are lessened, many people will turn their TVs off! Please do not let this happen. So many TV programs are already offensive enough. We cannot let this go any further. It needs to stop!!