Re: Freeconference.com, Inc./Iotum Inc.
Request for Extension of Special Temporary Authority
WC Docket No. 12-329

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Pursuant to Section 214 of the Communications Act, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 214, Freeconference.com, Inc. ("Freeconference.com") and Iotum Inc. ("Iotum") (collectively "Applicants") hereby request a 60-day extension of Special Temporary Authority ("STA") that is due to expire on April 12, 2013 to allow the Applicants to consummate the transaction outlined in the underlying application (the "Application") and Application amendment letter ("Amendment Letter") filed in the above-referenced docket.

On February 11, 2013, the Wireline Competition Bureau granted the STA for a 60-day period that expires on April 12, 2013, to allow the Applicants to consummate the transaction. The Application was filed with the Federal Communications Commission ("Commission") on October 24, 2012 and supplemented on November 16, 2012. The Department of Justice filed a deferral request on December 3, 2012, noting that the Team Telecom agencies wished to review the transaction. The Commission subsequently removed the application from streamlined processing pursuant to a Public Notice issued on December 11, 2012. On April 9, 2013, the Applicants filed an Amendment Letter with the FCC.

As explained in the Amendment Letter, the transaction will result in the sale of substantially all the assets of Global Conference Partners ("GCP") to Iotum Global Holdings Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Iotum. Iotum Global Holdings Inc. will subsequently change its name to "Global Conference Partners," and will continue to offer services to GCP's customers on the same rates, terms and conditions they currently enjoy.

Team Telecom's review of the Application is ongoing and, therefore, an extension of the STA is necessary to allow additional time for Team Telecom's review. Extension of the STA will serve the public interest, convenience and necessity because it will permit the continued provision of service without interruption to customers while the Commission considers the Application.

Applicants acknowledge that grant of this STA extension request will not prejudice any action the Commission may take on the underlying Application. Applicants further acknowledge that the STA may be revoked at any time by the Commission upon its own motion. Representatives of Team Telecom and the Department of Justice have been informed of this request and do not object.

Please contact me should you have additional questions.

Sincerely,
