

Please do not allow the networks to pollute our airwaves with profanity and nudity. There is more than enough negative influence coming into our homes via the television and other media. Help us protect the innocence of our children and the integrity of our entertainment. I hope these networks realize that their viewers will cease to patronize them.