

I am concerned with the direction this is taking. If we let our children guide their values by what is on TV, will they become better moral citizens? How could nudity and vulgarity help our children? Please, stop the dissemination of what is degrading to humans.