

This is unbelievable. TV is already too violent, inappropriate, vulgar and sexual. I oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards. It should not be allowed for stations to broadcast expletives and nudity on the public airwaves. I can't believe it is even being considered. What is this country coming to. A complete disgrace on the FCC's part. In fact, I am very strongly considering terminating my television subscription altogether!!!