

I strongly disagree with the notion that the f-word, partial nudity or anything above that (full nudity, frontal/backside) or further degradation of the mess that is already on most shows should be relaxed, removed or reconsidered. If the FCC is going to reconsider this, they should reconsider restricting further -I believe in freedom of speech, however there are somethings that should not be freely broadcast to all audiences. Keep it on HBO, Showtime, and channels such as that if needed -i wish the FCC would ban it froma all networks/channels/shows. I am a father of 4 young children -please reconsider this enormous mistake. Don't losen standards on profanity in the media. Thanks -Joshua George, NY
