

The profanity, nudity, and sexually explicit content that exists on broadcast television already occurs far too often me, my wife and my young children. Please do not allow any additional explicit or profane content on television. If anything there should be greater restrictions on this type of content.