

I think this is absolutely ridiculous, and goes to show the power the broadcasting companies have over our children's lives. Our family barely watches TV as it is because the standards are so obscene. Please make these standards stricter not looser!