

I am NOT okay with this. I am shocked that such a proposition would be considered. I do not feel that nudity as shown on TV is done so in a respectful manner, meaning that it is most likely pornographic. Pornography is a destructive force to everything that I hold sacred. My family, my future family, my friends, this society and myself deserve better than this. I do not want these things brought right into my front room.