

Please do not change the FCC rules on nudity and profane language. I do not have cable because of what is shown on those channels please do not allow the networks the same lax moral code, I don't want foul language and nudity in my home