

The proposed changes should not be allowed. This will expose our children to unnecessary bad language and nudity. The FCC is the gatekeeper over broadcast content and should take this very seriously.