

I oppose changing the FCC indecency rules to allow indecent materials on the public airwaves. The FCC must enforce the current rules in place and uphold the indecency policies.