

I am commenting on Docket #13-86. I do not want to see the standards lowered again. There is enough trash on television without the FCC going to even lower depths. There is enough negative influence on children and young adults on the evening news.