

I am very concerned about the decision to loosen the decency enforcement on broadcast television. This is something I am adamantly opposed to. We should be able to rely on regular broadcast television being free of nudity and major profanity. Please keep enforcing these rules. The more we lower our standards, the more we will begin to allow. Please continue to be strict about this enforcement and keep our homes free of this damaging content.