

With pornography already such a widespread problem, we do not need any additional exposure available to the public. I will closely monitor the tv and radio my children are exposed to, however, there are other parents who are not available to monitor their children as close. This would be a huge step in the wrong direction for our country. Please do not go forward with these changes.