

As a parent I am not okay with the change in the decency standards. I feel that we there is already to much of this on TV and would like to see less. If the FCC does pass this ban I will be cancelling TV all together. I hate having to run to the TV and explain to my 5 year old that what they just saw (Carl's Jr ad) is not OK that it is not how we should act and or dress.