

If adults want to watch trashy shows they can find one at a redbox near you. but primetime (in home) TV is not the place. we see and hear enough trash without having it when we turn on the TV in our homes. Please consider families, moms and dads trying to raise decent children and keep the TV clean!!