

I oppose any FCC changes to relax the regulations currently in place restricting the use of expletives and nudity in radio broadcasting. As the supreme court has upheld the authority of the FCC to enforce such policies, I believe that it will not serve the public interest. I strongly urge the FCC to reject any proposals to further lax the enforced standards on the airwaves.