

Explicit words and nudity in any form regardless if its educational or not, should never be allowed on TV nor is it ever necessary. With todays technology people who want offensive content can stream it from the internet. Current TV programming is already too offensive and too harmful. The FCC is going the wrong direction, we should be making TV content safer for all viewers, not worse!!!