

Please do not change the standards to the ones proposed. My family is already exposed to enough pornography and foul language as it is. There is no need or reason to show frontal nudity or not to bleep out the f and s words. Please consider what you are doing to the morals and values of the average American and to innocent children.

Thank you,

Rachel Lafranceschina