

Federal Communications Commission:

We want to go on record of supporting the enforcement of decency in public broadcasting both on television and on radio. We don't want to have profanity and filthy language and pictures creeping into our private viewing and listening unawares. We ask that you enforce the former standards of decency--not those you have been following since September, 2012.

Sincerely, Hugh and Faye Girsberger