

I am completely against the allowance of using the F--k or S--t words on Prime TV or regular TV, and also against any type of nudity. These things need to be kept to the adult cable stations. Our children already have enough garbage on Television clogging their brains. They don't need this type of garbage on regular channels. Some parents are trying to teach their children morals, ethics, and modesty. Please keep this trash off of our televisions.