

As a parent of three and a concerned citizen I request that the FCC keep it's decency standards or make them stronger. We should be protecting the little ears and eyes that do not need to be exposed to inappropriate behavior or language. Thank you for your consideration.