

I do not approve the the FCC proposal to permit frontal nudity and profanity on network TV. Many young families have small children that view network TV with no money for cable and netflix and such. Can we keep some morals in our society to protect our children from the evil of the world until they are at the age to choose for themselves.