

Please do not change the current FCC indecency standards for television and radio. We do not want profanity or nudity on television and radio programs.

Relaxing current policies would not be in the best interest of the public so I urge you to keep the current standards. Thank you.