

Please continue to restrict foul, offensive language and nudity from all broadcasting. There is no need to have this kind of language as it adds nothing to the broadcast itself except to demean and vulgarize the American population. With so many other options for watching programs and movies if we are subjected to increasing vulgarity and nudity I will end my TV watching turn to internet news (written) radio, computer streaming and Netflix. Most younger people are already opting for other forms of intertainment