

I feel that allowing non sexual nudity and the use of offensive expletives on network tv is a mistake. I personally do not subscribe to cable because of this reason, please protect our airwaves, one of the few places left where we feel relatively safe as a family viewing experience.