

I'm very concerned about the ramifications of repealing limits to nudity, violence & swearing on tv. We need these to teach our children about limits. Sometimes this is the only limit they might know. Also, why do we want to expose our children to things of an adult nature? Are they adults? NO! Please leave the limits the way they are or even make them more stringent! Our children have enough to deal with without being forced to take on a more adult role before they are emotionally mature enough to handle it.
