

I strongly oppose the loosening of restrictions governing what is allowed on public television. Our children are inundated with sexuality and pornography. As a parent, I believe that we need to protect our children from viewing and hearing inappropriate language and nudity. If anything, we should increase restrictions. As communities and as a nation we need to set a standard of decency for our children.